Facility Facts

Year built: 2002
Property: 100 acres

Parking: 180 parking spaces on-site. Additional parking lot with 80 spaces accessed by greenway 1/4 mile away.

J.B. Flaherty Park encompasses 100 acres with various recreational facilities. Also on site is Flaherty Park Community Center which is a recreational facility primarily used for Wake Forest Parks, Recreation & Cultural Resources Department programs.

History: In 1993, the town purchased 23 acres to build ball fields for its growing athletic program. Over the following years, the Flaherty family donated the rest of the 100 acres that are now J.B. Flaherty Park. In 2002, the town opened the community center which includes the first town-owned gymnasium.
